Our vision is to build a community where residents of Galveston County are healthy, financially stable and empowered to meet their full potential.

We Believe:

- Everyone should have sufficient food.
- Everyone should have a safe place to live.
- Everyone should have access to basic healthcare.
- Everyone should have the skills and support to enter and stay in the workforce.
- Children and youth should have an opportunity to grow and prosper.
- People in crisis should have access to emergency services.
- Seniors & people with disabilities should be supported in their efforts to remain independent.
